About the product

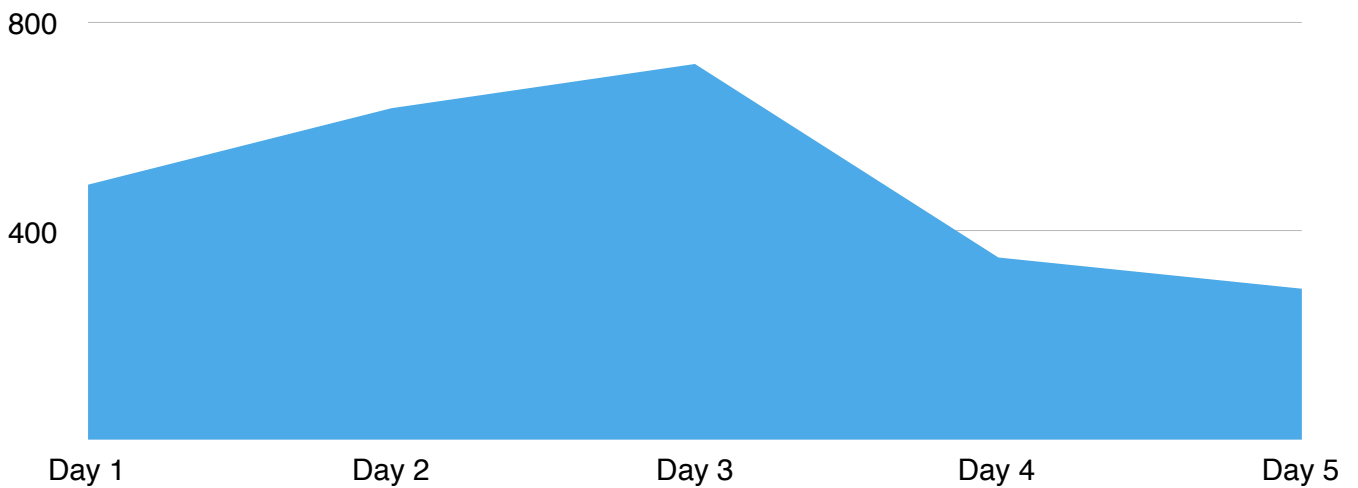

Thanks to Dobot M1, you can now get a professional SCARA based robotic arm for your workspace under $2000. And that too, with features that extend from 0.02mm precision, a velocity of 200 degrees per second, 1.5kg workload and 400mm maximum reach. This robot arm is designed to provide an user-friendly environment for self-employers and factories to build their production platform.
